As per the constitution the parents are required to bring to the notice of the respective class representative of any common issues pertaining to the class suggestions, grievances and feedback. In terms of the constitution the PC is the main point of contact for the parents to inform any such issues. Parents are kindly encouraged to use this established channel to contact the Board. However, the Board and the Principal too are accessible due to urgency of requisite action.

At its first meeting presided by Hon Chairman of the Board following office bearers were elected:

Sr. No.	Name of the Member	Position
1	Mr Vajira Kasthuriarachchi	Hon. Chief Representative
2.	Mr Nadishka Senaratne	Hon. Secretary of the PC

We take this opportunity to wish elected members of the PC all the very best in performing their duties in accordance with the constitution of the School. We are hopeful that the members would maintain the decorum of the office as expected in the constitution and would maintain a very cordial relationship with the Board of Directors and the School. Further, we expect the fullest cooperation of the parents and the PC in discharging the responsibilities of the Board especially in the area of development.

2. Sports Festival

We take this opportunity to thank all the parents who came forward to assist to float the road race smoothly. We are proud of all the participants who showed courage and real sportsmanship at the race. We are thankful to Mr Shirly Windus and Ms Samadhi Dhanapala for their wonderful display which laid the foundation for the many events to come in the Sports Festival to celebrate Silver Jubilee year of the School. We earnestly request all the parents to gather once again to raise funds for the co-curricular activities of the School for year 2013/14. The School will inform in due course the path of action to succeed this objective. In order to discuss this matter further we have the pleasure of inviting all the parents to the School on Wednesday, 02nd October 2013 at 8.00 p.m.

We are confident that all of you will unreservedly support the Mission of the School to be 'the Best School in the World'. We will take necessary step

On behalf of Board of Directors

K K Lalith Kumara

Hon. Chairman

1 October 2013
